To Whom It May Concern:

Ken Freeman came to Saugus High School and conducted two 45 minute assemblies on September 30, 2010. I personally did not know what to expect after viewing his bio on his website. I was thoroughly impressed with his presentation. Ken spoke to approximately 1,500 high schoolers grades 9-12 and captivated them. There wasn't a dull moment or time when the students weren't actively listening. Ken provided everyone with a ton of humor and laughter. More importantly he drove home the fact that everyday students are faced with choices, and that they have to choose their own path.

Many students came up to Ken after his presentations to meet him. I overheard various comments like: "that was so inspirational", "you have made me really think about things", "I want to hear more about your story", and of course "I almost had you in the Simon Says game".

It was a delight to have Ken Freeman speaking to our Saugus High School students. My only regret is that not every student in the school could hear his message. Saugus High School would welcome Ken back at any time.

Sincerely,
