To Whom It May Concern:

Ken Freeman spoke to approximately 450 of our freshman students this morning. His words were encouraging and insightful to all of our listeners. The concentration on "choices" was a priceless message to our students. The freshman year is such an influential time frame in our students' lives that we could not have hand picked a better time for this presentation to be heard.

He kept the students engaged and attentive throughout his delivery. There were several moments where you could have heard a pin drop, which is typically unusual for an auditorium with over 400 freshmen. The relevance and significance of his presentation were a perfect fit for our Freshman Academy. It would be great to have him address our 9th graders every year.

Sincerely,

J. Foster
